THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA.
Arizona's First University.

AFRICANA STUDIES

FILM SERIES

Spring 2008

presents

"Maids and Madams"

Mira Hamermesh's powerful film is set in Apartheid South Africa and it depicts lives of millions of black women living in a state of domestic bondage, underpaid, working long hours and at the mercy of draconian laws which separate them from their own families. The documentary film provides an eye-opening account of the situation facing black South African domestics living in a white-dominated society.

Discussion Moderator: Africana Studies Faculty Member:
Praise Zenenga

TUESDAY, February 26, 2008
5:00 PM
Modern Languages 210

This film series is an extension of AFAS-300-Historical Overview of African Cinema and filmmaking. This series is open to students enrolled at the University of Arizona. For individuals not enrolled and would like to observe, please contact the Director prior to each screening.

Please call 621-5665 for additional information.

College of Humanities