

AFRICANA STUDIES FILM SERIES

Spring 2008
presents

Why Did I Get Married?

With his film adaptation of his play of the same name, Tyler Perry asks the question, "Why did I get married?" The answer is different for each of the four couples featured in this relationship comedy, which includes Janet Jackson as a psychologist whose own marriage is on shaky ground. Not known for subtlety, Perry hammers in the point that no marriage is perfect, just as no one is completely blameless.

Discussion and film moderator: Africana Studies, Adjunct Lecturer

Desiree Washington

TUESDAY, April 22, 2008

5:00 PM

Modern Languages 210

This film series is an extension of AFAS-300 - Historical Overview of African Cinema and Filmmaking. This series is open to students at the University of Arizona. For individuals not enrolled and would like to observe, please contact the Director prior to each screening.

For additional information please call 621-5665

