

Africana Studies

Lecture Series
Spring 2007
presents

Teles Machibya

“The Art of Colonization”

This lecture will first discuss what colonization is, the many forms of colonization and how most of these forms exist today. The lecture will then present an argument that colonization is an art, therefore has ethical roots, theories, objects, principles and preferred application methods – the salient forms in contemporary colonization. In conclusion, a participatory discussion on the skills, wit and shrewdness required to combat the propagation, infusion and justifications of colonization will be presented.

Wednesday, April 18, 2007

12:00 - 1:50 PM

Modern Languages 210

ALL STUDENTS ARE ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND

Free & Open to the Pub

Please call 621-5664 for additional information